.....RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court will be pleased to issue a writ or order or direction more particularly one in the nature of Writ of Mandamus declaring that the action of the respondents in imposing punishment of deferment of annual increment when next falls for a period of one year which shall have effect on future increments as bad, arbitrary, illegal, unjust and unreasonable and violative of principles of natural justice and contrary to the judgments of this Hon'ble Court and also the apex court by setting aside the final order No.02/95 (48) / 95-NLG dated 13-10-1995 and consequently direct the respondents to add the deferred increments and to pay arrears.

Counsel for the Petitioner :MR.P.VENKATESWAR RAO

Counsel for the Respondents : MR.V.T.M.PRASAD(SC FOR APSRTC)

The Court at admission stage made the following :

ORDER:

The petitioner is working as a Conductor in the respondent-Corporation. He was issued a charge memo on 27-09-1995 for having committed certain cash and ticket irregularities while he was conducting the vehicle bearing Regn.No.AP9Z 939 and after receiving the explanation of the petitioner, the final orders were passed on 13-10-1995 by the 1st respondent, imposing the penalty of deferment of increment for a period of one year with cumulative effect. The petitioner questioned the order on the ground that though deferment of increment for a period of one year with cumulative effect is a major penalty, the 1st respondent passed the impugned order without conducting any enquiry as required under the rules. Challenging the proceedings dated 13-10-1995, petitioner carried the matter in appeal before the Deputy Chief Traffic Manager, Nalgonda, but the same was rejected. Against the said rejection, the petitioner preferred a review petition before the 2nd respondent and the same was rejected through his proceedings dated 22-12-1997. Aggrieved by the same, the present writ petition has been filed.

2. The learned Counsel for the petitioner relied on a judgment of the Supreme Court in Kulwant Singh Gill v. State of Punjab¹ wherein the Supreme Court held that since the punishment imposed on the petitioner is a major punishment, the order cannot be sustained without an enquiry. The petitioner therefore seeks to declare that the order is illegal and it is liable to be set aside.

3. The petitioner after receiving the adverse orders slept over the matter for a period of 7 years. There are laches on his part in asserting his right regarding this issue. Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, though the impugned order is liable to be set aside, on account of long lapse of time in filing the writ petition and in view of the judgment of the Supreme Court in Kulwant Singh Gill (1 supra), I deem it appropriate to consider the punishment of deferment of one increment with cumulative effect, can be reduced with slight modification.

4. Therefore, the order of punishment is modified as deferment of one increment without cumulative effect. The petitioner is not entitled for the difference of the amount, if any, by virtue of this order for the period from the date of the impugned order till the date of this order. But, he is entitled to get increments on notional calculation from the date of this order to which he is entitled.

5. The Writ Petition is accordingly disposed of with the above observations. In the circumstances, there shall be no order as to costs.
